

December 2, 2020 Daily Church Email

Today when I came into church I headed to the Christmas tree in the sanctuary to check the water level. I did the same yesterday. Old habits die hard as this is our first year with the artificial Christmas tree. It is gorgeous, simple, and less messy.

I thought it would be a shock this year from the years of a real tree to the artificial one. Metaphorically though, we have much bigger fish to fry in 2020.

Thank you for the crew who transitioned the greening of the sanctuary: Joanne Chadima, Harder family, Gary and Pat Kilberger, and Larry Modracek. The tree is dedicated in the memory of Leo and Irma Modracek.

There are a few Advent daily devotionals left in the plastic box outside the southside door. The children and youth studies just started yesterday, so it wouldn't be much to catch up.
