"We confess and acknowledge one God alone, to whom alone we must cleave, whom alone we must serve, whom only we must worship, and in whom alone we put our trust."

This was the first sentence of the Scots Confession from 1560 after the conclusion of a civil war in Scotland between the Catholic Queen and the Protestant nobility.

"Cleave...serve...worship...and trust" are the active verbs of faith presented. They call to us today, 461 years after being written.

May those four verbs inspire you in your faith today.

Blessings to you in Christ,
Pastor Julie
