A Celtic poem for today from Celtic Praise by Robert Van De Weyer

HOME

Where is my home?
Is it the house where I live,
the garden where I sit in summer,
the country where I roam,
or the church where I worship?
The place I call home
is where my heart is at rest.
And my heart is most at rest
when it turns to God in prayer.
So wherever I pray is home.

Have a blessed day in Christ,
