A prayer poem for the day called VIBRATIONS

When the days are heavy and my strength is small let my heart vibrate
with your constant call.
Let me know that it is true
I am loved and belong to you.

When life is weary
and friends seem few,
give me your power,
my strength renew.

When friends are many
and life is full,
give me clear vision,
let me not be dull.

When all is over,
and action is past,
reveal your Presence,
bring me home at last.

(Power Lines: Celtic Prayers about Work by David Adam)

Blessings to you in Christ, Pastor Julie
