These two verses from Genesis 8 seem particularly meaningful on a cold winter's day. They are part of the story after Noah and Ark when Noah made an offering to God...

21 The Lord smelled the pleasing aroma and said in his heart: "Never again will I curse the ground because of humans, even though every inclination of the human heart is evil from childhood. And never again will I destroy all living creatures, as I have done.

22 *"As long as the earth endures,
seedtime and harvest,
cold and heat,
summer and winter,
day and night
will never cease."*

Genesis 8:21-22

May you find a moment of contemplation today.
