

January 6, 2022 Daily Church Email

A personal reflection today:

I have always anticipated with joy Epiphany which is scheduled after the 12 days of the Christmas season and celebrated on January 6. It is the revelation of the light of Christchild. It is the long journey of the Magi following the astronomical star event. It is the inspiration and knowledge of experiencing God.

In years ahead, though, students will learn about January 6 in a very different way--not only as a religious Christian day. January 6, 2021 will be remembered as a day that marred our country's history. Likely it will be remembered in other ways too.

One way that I personally will remember a year ago is the actions of the patriotic capitol police and those governing officials who died or suffered in their duty and service to the country.

Let us pray together today for the Christ light to the nations, for the presence of the holy gospel, for the way of Jesus to be before us.

Blessings to you in Christ,
Pastor Julie
