

January 7, 2021 Daily Church Email

Yesterday, January 6, 2021 began under the bright star of Epiphany.

Yesterday, January 6, 2021 ended in violence within our nation's capital building. The day ended with the shock of the American people--ourselves, our neighbors, our extended families.

January 6, 2021 will be written into the history books and what will be said?

May this be a turning point.

Let us turn from our stubborn and destructive ways and repent to God.

Let us stand for what is right.

And together as "one people under God" let us faithfully rise from the smoke, profane words, and violation of our symbolic House of the People, and work for a better United States of America.

Prayers for you, and for countrymen and women.

In Christ,

Pastor Julie
