

July 11, 2020 Daily Church Email

Worship tomorrow (July 12) will offer a variety of ways to participate outdoors, in vehicles or at home.

1. Lawn chairs and blankets can gather on the northside of the church where worship leaders and musicians will set up. There will be a speaker which will amplify worship.
2. Vehicles can access f.m. radio transmission by parking near the west or north sides of driveway. (We are going to move the antenna from the parking lot side to the north side and see if that works better.)
3. Church building access will be encouraged to use the opposite approach as last week. This week let's try to enter from the north and exit to the south.
3. At home Facebook live streaming will continue.

Remember to have your own coffees. Church kitchen temporarily closed.

Blessings to you today in Christ,
Pastor Julie
