

May 13, 2020 Daily Church Email

This morning Governor Reynolds made additional guidance concerning the May 15 deadline of the Iowa state of emergency provisions. Her foremost guidance is that people over 65 should stay at home with the exceptions of essential errands and medical care. This in combination with church denomination guidance and CDC guidance are helping us to make plans in the next steps of in-person worship opportunities at church. The church's Session continues to direct the ministries and missions of the church and look forward to new ways of worshipping together. We will continue online live streaming and expand to even more broadly widen the doorway to participation.

You are in my thoughts, prayers, and plans today as we prepare for the days ahead.

In Christ,

Pastor Julie
