

May 15, 2020 Daily Church Email

Last night there was a rainbow beyond belief from the viewpoint of the church. It was a full double rainbow after the lightning cracks, the thunder echoes, and the downpour.

What a hopeful sign it was for the ancients who looked to the sky after the storms let loose and were reassured by the bow, Genesis 9:13: God told Noah, "I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth." The bow promised to the earth protection and grace. The bow showed the silver lining of the storm and the glimpse of returning sun.

Today with faith, let us keep our eyes to the skies, our feet on the ground, and our minds to the tasks before us.

In Christ,
Pastor Julie

Reminder: Please submit names of graduates and their degree, diploma, or certification accomplishments for recognition on Sunday, May 17.

Also, a picture of the rainbow is posted on the church's website and Facebook page. elypres.org

First Presbyterian Church near Ely

11100 Spanish Road
Ely, Iowa 52227
(319) 848-4624

office@elypres.org

