

May 21, 2021 Daily Church Email

The Session met last night and modified our COVID-19 practices at church gatherings.

First of all, thank you to everyone who has encouraged, tolerated, adapted, and helped in this past chapter of the life of faith of the church family. You have gone the extra mile and it is recognized as valuable and meaningful. Leaders, staff, and volunteers have shown their true colors--their willingness to self-discipline and deny their own wants and comfort for the good of others. Thank you.

May 30 will begin outdoor worship with the Riverbottom Ramblers sharing music and leading a sing-a-long. Bring a chair! Invite someone!

We hope to continue outdoor worship for the month of June (weather permitting.)

Secondly, wearing masks is still encouraged, particularly for those unvaccinated.

Third, snacks and coffee will be served May 30 after worship.

As 1 Thessalonians 5:11 says, "Encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing."

May God be praised in all.

In Christ,
Pastor Julie
