

November 14, 2020 Daily Church Email

Every November of the year, one Sunday is dedicated to blessing our stewardship. This Sunday, November 15, we will continue our faithfulness to God in word and deed, gift and mercy.

From the November newsletter....

my cup overflows (Psalm 23:5)
...even in 2020?
....even in 2020.

Despite 2020, our scriptures and our faith remind us that the cup of the new covenant is more than half-full, more than full—it is SO FULL that it cannot contain all of the blessings of God.

Our commitments to God, to each other, and to the community continue even if they look different than a year ago. Our church members and leaders have creatively adapted to maintain our connections to one another through

- ✓ live streaming worship services
- ✓ regular emails from church
- ✓ daily inspiring posts on Facebook
- ✓ enjoy outside worship for not just one or two Sunday this summer but for a full three months
- ✓ continuing our mission financial commitments and strengthening our ties with the Olivet Neighborhood Mission and Linn Community Food Bank
- ✓ continuing our Wednesday morning Bible study by live streaming and video conference
- ✓ a new methodology to VBS (virtual) and Sunday School (experiencing the Bible story in stretching movements)
- ✓ through Pen Pals and phone calls

Our cup flows over.

Thank you to all who have continued to interact and worship with your church family. We continue to be transformed by the Holy Spirit alive and active in our lives and times. And, we trust that God will continue and pour into our cup blessings, responsibilities, joys, and faith.

In Christ,
Pastor Julie
