

November 28, 2020 Daily Church Email

As our attention turns away from Thanksgiving and to Advent, we will mark the first Sunday of Advent tomorrow with the lighting of a candle in the Advent wreath. The evergreen wreath reminds us of everlasting life in Christ.

If you picked up a kit from church, you would have found tea candles, candle holders and tissue paper with the idea of making decoupage candle holders: 3 purple, one pink, and one white for the 4 Sundays of Advent and Christmas.

If you already have an Advent wreath, or simple candles, I encourage you to get them ready for worship time tomorrow morning so that after the sermon and communion, we will light the first candle showing the power of light in the darkness of our world.

Yes, we are back to online live streaming worship this Sunday. You can log into Facebook for live streaming of the worship service. Or Zoom for worship/fellowship/Sunday School.

And finally, it is our tradition on the first Sunday of Advent to share Holy Communion. Communion elements will be available for those worshipping in the church parking area (for FM broadcast) and the worship leaders inside. If you are at home, please find symbols representing the bread and the cup that are meaningful to you.

Thank you for your patience these days.

Blessings to you in Christ,

Pastor Julie
