"God alone is Lord of the conscience, and hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are in anything contrary to his Word, or beside it in matters of faith or worship."

In the Westminster Confession from 1646, Reformed faith understanding of scriptures and practices were established. Tucked into chapter 20, statement 2, we hear the words "God alone is Lord of the conscience." Repeated in Confirmation classes, Reformation Sundays, and election days throughout our years, we are reminded again to whom we are first and foremost accountable--God.

Blessings to you this 2020 Election Day.

In Christ,
Pastor Julie
