"Use the past as a tool, not a club."

Anonymous

This past Sunday was "All Saints" day and during the prayer of the people was this segment:

"Even as we seek your blessing, we give thanks and pause to remember those who have shown us your love, mercy, and truth. We remember their faces and their names. We remember their stories and their voices..."

Today may you remember someone from your past. May their stories and examples remind you of the tools that you have been given, and where to dispose the clubs.

Have a blessed day in Christ,
Pastor Julie
