An ancient Celtic poem: Never Mock (from Celtic Praise: A Book of Celtic Devotion)

Never mock what others say.
Perhaps their words are full of nonsense.
Perhaps they are trying to puff themselves up.
Perhaps they like hearing the sound of their voices.
Perhaps they are trying to deceive their hearers.
Perhaps they are foolish and dim.
Perhaps they more clever than wise.
Yet amidst the useless clay.
You may find jewels beyond price.
The word of God is in every heart,
And can speak through every voice.

Have a blessed day in Christ,
Pastor Julie
