

October 28, 2022 Daily Church Email

A farming/stewardship/generosity/planning tale for today's email:

The story is told of a group of farmers many years ago who decided to eat their best potatoes and to plant only the small ones. They kept up this practice for many years, even though they noticed the potatoes getting smaller and smaller. They blamed the weather and the beetles and the blight.

They kept it up until all of their potatoes were reduced to the size of large marbles. The farmers learned through bitter experience that they could not keep the best things of life for themselves and use the leftovers for seed. The laws of life and nature decreed that the harvest would reflect the planting.

My comment: we have to do our best to hope for the best, and we praise God for filling in the rest.

Have a blessed day in Christ,
Pastor Julie

Congregational meeting on Sunday after worship to elect church officers and hear 2022 budget update.

First Presbyterian Church near Ely

11100 Spanish Road
Ely, Iowa 52227
(319) 848-4624

office@elypres.org

